

THE PROCEDURE FOR SELECTING EXPERTS AND EXPERT ORGANIZATIONS
FOR CARRYING OUT EXTERNAL REVIEW

1. This procedure defines the rules for selecting and nominating experts and expert organizations for carrying out external review.

To conduct external review, the federal executive body that exercises control and supervision functions in the field of education (hereinafter referred to as the federal accreditation body), or the executive body of a constituent entity of the Russian Federation that exercises educational authority delegated by the Russian Federation (hereinafter referred to as the accreditation body), nominates experts and (or) representatives of expert organizations from the Register of experts and expert organizations (hereinafter - the Register).

3. The experts and (or) representatives of expert organizations are selected from the Register by means of an automated random selection using the following parameters:

a) the level of education (for general education), an integrated group of professions, specialties and fields of training (for vocational education) in respect of which the expert (expert organization) is certified to conduct external review, including in educational institutions of higher education specified in paragraph 10 of Article 11 of the Federal Law;

b) the place of residence or place of stay of the expert (the location of the expert organization);

c) if nominating an expert (expert organization) for carrying out external review of basic study programs containing information constituting a state secret:

the expert's admission to work with official information, as well as with the information constituting state secrets;

the expert organization's license to work using information constituting state secrets of the corresponding level of classification;

4. The accreditation body notifies an expert (expert organization) that the specified expert (expert organization) has been selected and nominated for conducting external review (hereinafter - the notification) of the educational institution, its location and exact dates of external review.

The notification must contain the terms for the written consent of the persons (indicated in the first paragraph of clause 4 of this order) to participate in the relevant external review

5. With the written consent, an expert (expert organization) also confirms the lack of any dependence on persons interested in its results, and (or) his/her own interest in the external review results.

6. The involvement of experts and (or) representatives of expert organizations for conducting external review in relation to study programs implemented in the organization carrying out educational activities and in each of its branches is carried out on the basis of the regulatory act issued by the accreditation body for conducting external review.
